

I feel that if I choose to pay for a service such as XM sat radio that I should be allowed to have both traffic and weather reports available. I do not see any justifiable reason that this service should be banned. Please do not take this valuable service away.